THOMAS M. RUSSELL for Mayor. INTERNATIONAL "GO-TO-SUNDAY SCHOOL" DAY

Have you made your plans to attend some Sunday School next Sunday. If you have not, then make up your mind to do so at once for it is International "Go-to-Sunday School" Day and your presence is desired in any of the Maysville Sunday Schools. Maysville is in a friendly contest with Somerset for the largest attendance and you can help to bring victory to our city. It costs nothing to help and it will do you good.

SHANNON STOCK COMPANY AT WASHINGTON NEXT WEEK

The Harry Shannon Stock Company, one of the best on the road, has booked for a week's engagement here next week. This company, besides carrying a fine bunch of actors, has a big band. This is the first stock company to show in Maysville for several years.

FINGER DID NOT COUNT

Fleming Gazette: Saturday R. T. Conrad of near Wallingford was before the local draft board on an exemption claim of peculiar interest. He was in the draft some time ago, was examined and accepted by the local board and before called to service he cut his right fore finger, he says, accidentally while chopping wood. The district board then exempted him and he was not required to go. The case was taken up again Saturday by the local board, however, and it was decided that he should go at the next call, even with his finger missing.

THOMAS M. RUSSELL for Mayor. BIG DEMAND FOR COAL IN FLEMING

The Fleming Gazette says: An unusual sigh was witnessed Wednesday morning when 40 or 50 wagons lined up at the switch yard and back on Main-X street waiting in turn to get coal. There was but one or two car loads to be had and some had to go home empty handed. The demand for coal was caused by the cold weather which had set in and by the fact that most people were unable to lay in their coal supply last summer.

RUNAWAY YESTERDAY AFTER-NOON

A team of mules attached to a big wagon belonging to James Purdon got away from the driver on West Second street and ran quite a distance before being stopped at the corner of Market and Second streets. Luckily no one was hurt and no damage was done notwithstanding the fact that many vehicles were on the street.

SIGN PLEDGE CARD TODAY

Have you signed a food conservation pledge card yet? If not do so at once if you want to be patriotic. This does not mean that you are to eat less, but to eat more of the things of which there is an abundance and to waste as little as possible.

Buy your soldier boy a box of Johnston's Chocolate, he sure will appreciate it, because it is Johnston's sold only at Berley's Confectionery and Lunch Room, 229 Market street. Phone 333.

Mary Gragston, colored, was tried in Police Court yesterday on a charge of grand larceny, but on account of their being insufficient evidence against her, she was dismissed.

1763 ENROLLED

For Food Conservation in First Two Days of Campaign—Mason Stands Next to Jefferson and Fayette Counties, Wires Sackett.

Louisville, Ky., October 30.
Miss Alice Lloyd,
Maysville, Ky.
Congratulations for you and the other people of Mason county. Your first day's registration next to Jefferson and Fayette counties.
FRED M. SACKETT,
Food Administrator.

The total reported enrollment in the Food Conservation Campaign for Monday and Tuesday is 1763. The actual enrollment is no doubt much larger but because of the scarcity of telephones in some precincts reports were not turned in last night. Four precincts have not been heard from but it is known that good work is being done.

Maysville No. 5—Colonel Mrs. W. J. Caplinger leads with 245 cards signed; Maysville No. 6—Colonel Miss Zorada Cochran is second in the city with 210 signatures; in the county, Dieterich—Colonel, Mrs. H. C. Hoffman, leads with 120 signatures and Lewisburg—Colonel, Mrs. T. F. Galtner is second with 117.

According to the last census there are in Mason county 4229 families. Workers are urged to push the canvass vigorously with 100% enrollment by Saturday night, November 4, as the goal.

Tuesday's Lexington Herald stated that in Fayette county persons of sufficient intelligence to understand the gravity of the situation who did not sign the pledge were investigated to find out why they had not signed and two persons were put under surveillance as pro-German.
Here's hoping that Mason county has no citizens who are so lacking in intelligence or who are pro-German.

Vote for J. D. EASTON for Mayor.

YESTERDAY'S REGISTRATION

Following is the result of the second day's special registration at the County Clerk's office, giving the registration of one year ago on the same day:

TICKET LEFT OFF BALLOT

Frankfort, Ky., October 29—The entire Democratic ticket in Ohio county will be left off the ballot in the November election. The nominees failed to file their certificates of nomination with the Clerk of the Ohio Circuit Court. The Court of Appeals today declined to take jurisdiction of the appeals of the Democratic nominees for the reason that an injunction had not been granted by the Ohio Circuit Court.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR JUDGE IN FLEMING WITHDRAWS

Flemingsburg, Ky., October 29—C. Y. Hillis, Republican nominee for county judge of Fleming county, today authorized the withdrawal of his candidacy. This leaves only two offices to be contested for in this county at the November election, those of assessor and jailer, there being no opposition to any of the other Democratic nominees.

ADMITS HE KILLED FRIEND

Cynthiana, Ky., October 29—Earle Eaton today confessed he killed his friend, Raymond Rainey, who was found dead last Wednesday night with a gunshot wound in his back. The young man had been hunting, and when returning home, young Eaton claimed, he accidentally shot Rainey in the back. The coroner's had handed in a verdict of accidental shooting.

RAIN SOAKS BEDDING AT CANTONMENT

Barracks Roofs Let in the Wet at Camp Zachary Taylor—Downpour Converts Reservation Into Lake of Oozy Yellow Mud—Fires Are Rekindled.

Louisville, Ky., October 30—Rain played havoc with training schedules at Camp Zachary Taylor yesterday afternoon—turned the reservation into a lake of oozy yellow mud and forcibly brought home to the young soldiers some idea of the hardships and discomforts that must be endured while wearing the khaki.

Early in the afternoon officers and men made a brave attempt to continue their drills despite the drenching downpour. Every hour, every minute during a drill period is considered invaluable. When the word was passed to put on ponchoes and face the weather there was not a murmur—it was all in the game. Men marched out into the mud and water, where they floundered around like fish out of their element. Keeping step was impossible and the commands of the officers were often unheard because of the roar of the wind which accompanied the rain. Gen. Hale soon saw the impracticability of carrying on training under such conditions and orders were sent out from Division Headquarters suspending all further drill for the afternoon.

A mighty cheer went up when the order was given to march back to the barracks. On reaching the buildings, however, another surprise was on hand to greet them. The roofs had been given the supreme test and had failed. There was water everywhere and many a man found his cot drenched and his bedding soaked.

The officers' quarters suffered far worse than those of the men. The roofs on these buildings seemed to be totally unfit for the purpose required. Water was standing in some of the rooms in wide pools and streams were pouring down the walls. The regimental fire department was called out several units to help bale out certain buildings.

Throughout the camp there was unanimous complaint against the roofing provided for the buildings. Only a very few proved to be waterproof—one of which was Division Headquarters. Staff officers were able to state that they had suffered no inconvenience from the rain, which at times assumed the proportions of a cloudburst.

THOMAS M. RUSSELL for Mayor.

DON'T BURN THE LEAVES

Instead of burning the leaves that are falling put now with such rapidity, put them on your garden. They make an excellent fertilizer, and besides it is a much easier way of disposing of them than by smoking out your neighbors, and filling the air with a disagreeable acid, stinging smoke.

In some cities the burning of leaves is strictly prohibited by city ordinance and strictly enforced. Many physicians have indicated their belief that the smoke from the burning leaves induces diphtheria and other serious throat troubles. At the very least it is an unsanitary and wholly useless proceeding. The dead leaves should be restored to replenish the soil from which they spring.

Vote for J. D. EASTON for Mayor.

Professor H. G. DeLong, of Flemingsburg high school, has resigned on account of tuberculosis of the throat. Professor A. E. Arnold has been elected temporarily until some one can be selected to fill the position.

SIXTEEN CONTESTANTS

In Canning Exhibit Enter Forty-Five Jars of Canned Vegetables—Prizes Awarded and Honorable Mention Is Given.

A total of forty-five jars of canned vegetables were entered in the canning contest and exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce last week. These jars were the exhibits of sixteen ladies of the city and county, famed for their ability in culinary arts. The purpose of these canning contests is primarily educational and it is to be hoped that another year there will be a greater number of entries and more visitors at the exhibition.

In addition to the prizes mentioned in an issue of last week honorable mention is made of several other exhibits. The list follows:

First prize—Mrs. E. P. Lee.
Second prize—Mrs. Qualiance.
Reward of Merit—Mrs. N. F. Jones.
Honorable Mention—Mrs. Dr. Harover, Mrs. Charles M. Hancock, Mrs. Fred Williams, Miss Emma Williams.
The idea of the canning exhibit is to give our local housewives an idea of what may be done in the way of canning fruits and vegetables and to be an added incentive to the raising of war gardens and the increased canning and preserving of our surplus food supply.

Particular mention should be made of the canned Swiss chard exhibited by Mrs. Charles Hancock. Chard is a vegetable known by our Mason county people, but is easily raised in this section and answers a twofold purpose as the top may be used as a salad or cooked as turnip and the roots can be creamed like celery.

GROVER MORGAN

All 'Round Bad Man, Arrested Here Monday Night—Will Be Turned Over To Federal Authorities As a Deserter.

Grover Morgan, who was classed as a deserter by the County Exemption Board some time ago because he failed to report for military duty, was arrested at the McLoughlin boarding house here Monday night by Officer A. G. Stewart and was placed in jail.

Morgan had committed several thefts in this city and county prior to his arrest, and his whereabouts was made known by one of the men whom he had robbed.

Morgan is also wanted in Bourbon county on a charge of stealing several valuable diamonds from a Bourbon county home several months ago. He escaped from the Bourbon county jail by oiling his body and crawling through a small hole, pushing his clothes ahead of him.

Morgan will be turned over to the Federal authorities and will probably get what is coming to him.

WORKED VALIANTLY FOR LIBERTY LOAN

The Ashland Independent says: There is a Republican leader in the Eleventh district who has left no stone unturned and no word unsaid to help create the loan. He is Edwin P. Chairman Ed T. Franks, of the Republican State Central Committee, is another resident of western Kentucky who elucidated the situation and by his persuasive eloquence added materially to the aggregate of purchases.

DON'T WAIT

Take Advantage of a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

When the back begins to ache. Don't wait until backache becomes chronic.

"Till kidney troubles develop; Profit by a Maysville woman's experience.

Mrs. R. W. Lauderback, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "Two years ago I was suffering with kidney trouble and had been for a long time. I was nervous and dizzy and had severe headaches. My kidneys were too frequent in action and annoyed me greatly. I had a dull ache across the small of my back and my back was so lame at times that I could hardly bend one way or the other. Some one advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They helped me at once and continued use entirely cured me of the trouble."

Mrs. Lauderback is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that cured Mrs. Lauderback—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. THE DAILY REMINDER

In The Day's News

Bishop Paul Jones of Utah, who has been requested to resign his post, by formal action taken by the laity of two of the leading congregations of Salt Lake City, is one of the youngest bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 37 years ago, he was graduated from Yale in 1902 and from the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Mass., four years later. In 1906 he was ordained a priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church and settled down for his life work in Utah. His election to the bishopric came in 1914 as a recognition of his efficient record in subordinate positions. Bishop Jones has been a Socialist for some years. Now he has been formally charged with disloyalty to his country, as indicated by his membership in organizations not in sympathy with the national purpose, and also by his own criticism of the Government.

THE TABERNACLE ENTERTAINMENT

At Odd Fellows Hall on Thursday, November 29, Has Struck a Popular Response Everywhere.

This little band of women have extended such an honored and magnanimous invitation to every lodge in Maysville and every church in the county, that it is safe to predict a large crowd for their entertainment Thanksgiving day.

A celebration of this nature affords an excellent opportunity for fraternal, religious, industrial and professional men and women to meet upon a fundamental ground and renew their pledge to make better efforts to help the poor and oppressed, to go shoulder to shoulder in our country's cause to give our full measure unselfish to the cause of God and humanity.

This momentous gathering on Thanksgiving Day will as a youthful race give rise to motives so high and character so noble and patriotism so unselfish that from this time henceforth all fraternal organizations in our proud little hamlet will be the better for having met in union, they will be kept pure and command a measure of devotion from all the citizens unsurpassed by any that our age can trace to its superior wisdom and superior knowledge of fraternal things.

To give unto Caesar the things that are Caesar, is not less the direct commandment of Christ than to love God and our neighbor. No one understands this better and try more earnestly to perfect these true things than this goodly band of women who comprise Congo River Tabernacle, who have labored so nobly in the battles of life with ceaseless zeal that woman should be holy and live at any and all times as Caesar's wife, "above suspicion." And all the lodges that assemble with Congo River Tabernacle on Thanksgiving Day, stand shoulder to shoulder for these noble principles and they will beyond a shadow of doubt express the endearing thought when their number is called for on the evening's program.

The class of entertainment is timely and in keeping with the spirit of Thanksgiving Day, for deep in the heart of every man and woman dwells the one sweet perfect memory that is home, father and mother, and joy and love we would display on Thanksgiving Day, for the pumpkin pie, turkey and cranberries and all the good cookery that the tender and loving hands of mother prepared in the bygone days.

It was back in the days when the frost was on the pumpkins and the fodder was in the shock, they are the days homes first love, the love unspilled by calculation or the wisdom that comes with the later years, and the love whose unfolding is a revelation and which bridges with a rainbow of dreams the gulf between childhood and manhood.

In the rush and hurry of life and the claims of duty and responsibilities causes our youthful dreams to be soon forgotten and thrust aside, but in the sunset years, it is then age gets its seal upon the brain and body, the old memory creeps back, a poignant picture from the youth that has fled.

It is strange, passing strange how closely men and women cling and cluster to the youthful things when the Thanksgiving Day comes around, and when his heart is a truant from the old home which sheltered him and taught him his palatable toothsome taste for Thanksgiving turkey and cranberries, with the good old pumpkin pie on the side.

Such a one has but to allow his footsteps to lead him to Oddfellows hall, where his "old-fashioned" dinner awaits his coming, and as he eats his memory can travel back to the good old days down on the farm, "when the frost was on the pumpkins and the fodder was in the shock."

The exceedingly fine program for morning, afternoon and night will amply repay you for your visit and help to these noble women in their laudable undertaking and who are struggling to secure money to care for their sick and distressed members.

TODAY'S EVENTS

All-Hallow E'en. General celebration of the 400th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

A national war council of the Young Women's Christian Association is to be held today at Kansas City.

Important questions pertaining to Red Cross work will be discussed at the Nebraska State Red Cross conference to be held today in Omaha.

A general conference of insurance and warehouse men is to be held at the Department of Agriculture in Washington today to discuss the proposed rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture under the new United States Warehouse Act.

All branches of educational work will be discussed at the Sixty-fifth annual institution of the Michigan State Teachers' Association, which will open a three-day session today at Grand Rapids.

The North Dakota Education Association has decided to eliminate the musical and entertainment features from its annual convention opening today at Bismarck, and to devote the money to war relief work.

At midnight tonight the bars of Washington, D. C., will close, probably never to be reopened. As a result of the Sheppard law coming into effect the wholesale and retail liquor stores will be closed, local breweries shut down, and thirsty residents of the capital left dependent upon the private importation of liquors beyond the confines of the District of Columbia.

In these stirring times it is interesting to recall today as the fiftieth anniversary of the death of John A. Andrew, the famous war governor of Massachusetts.

In the season's averages the White Sox were second in team batting, Detroit being first. And in team fielding the champions were also second, the Red Sox holding down first place.

FOOD ECONOMY

Practiced By Housewives of Kentucky Will Not Be In Vain—Army Training Camp Are Lending Assistance.

Louisville, Ky., October 31—That the food economy practiced by the housewives of Kentucky will not be in vain for as the co-operation of the army is concerned is assured in a letter from the commander of Camp Zachary Taylor here made public today by F. M. Sackett, Federal Food Administrator for Kentucky. This letter shows that the army training camps are doing everything science can suggest to prevent waste in the feeding of hundreds of thousands of men. The letters follows:

Headquarters 84th Division,
Camp Zachary Taylor,
Kentucky,

October 29, 1917.

Mr. F. M. Sackett,
Food Administrator for Kentucky,
Speed Bldg.,
Louisville, Ky.

My dear Mr. Sackett:
Knowing of the vital concern of your office in the conservation and economic use of food, I am writing to say that I am quite encouraged in results obtained along this line at Camp Zachary Taylor.

When I first came here this matter was taken up and it was impressed upon subalterns to thoroughly instruct their cooks and dining-room help as to the necessity of preventing waste and as to the methods of securing this result. Since that time, in daily inspections of the camp, I have taken pains to inspect the garbage cans and assure myself, through this means and others, that the orders, that the orders are being carried out. From these inspections it is evident that we are succeeding in preventing waste at this camp, and I am writing to inform you that you may know at first hand the facts in the case.

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) HARRY HALE,
Major General, N. A.

GAS MAIN BREAKS AT LEXINGTON

A break about 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the main gas pipe line of the Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company, which supplies Lexington and the adjacent Bluegrass with natural gas, interrupted the flow of gas for several hours today and left hundreds of homes in this city without heating and cooking facilities.

Before noon the service was restored and everybody was happy that the break was no worse.

Coming at the hour it did, and following the sudden drop in temperature, the cessation of the flow of gas caused much inconvenience, discomfort and annoyance in hundreds of homes and many boarding houses which depend exclusively on gas for heating and cooking.
